

529 Plan Deductions:

A 529 plan is a state program that allows a person to contribute to a fund, where the money can grow tax free, and distributions can be made to a beneficiary for qualified educational expenses. 529 plan contributions are not deductible on the Federal level but many states allow a tax deduction for it.